The idea of traveling with a pet can be daunting, so we love a good pet-friendly hotel. Our kitties and puppies deserve luxury treatment just like we do, and T+L has found 12 amazing properties that cater especially to canines. Whoever coined the phrase “It’s a dog’s life” must have been a guest at one of these stellar vacation hideaways. Whether you’re bringing the family lab along with your children, or your chihuahua is your child, each of these properties goes way beyond merely allowing pets. They treat them like guests in their own right. We’re talking massages, turn-down service with rawhide bones, and aromatherapy, for starters. So forget boarding. Treat your best friend like, well, your best friend, and hit the road together. From mountain town retreats to city-sleek towers, here are the top 12 dog-friendly hotels.

Knob Hill Inn, Ketchum, ID

It'll be love at first sight for fans of bed and breakfasts. Snuggled in gorgeous Sun Valley, the Knob Hill Inn is just the right size to give you that homey feel without having to eat with the owners every. single. morning. Here you can grab complimentary breakfast goodies (and Starbucks coffee!) in the fireplace room, then hop on the (included) shuttle to top cross-country skiing sites, golf courses, tennis courts, and fishing spots. A hook for history buffs: Ernest Hemingway's grave is within walking distance.

Pooch Perks: Safety first for Fido! You'll get a canine first aid kit, complimentary dog tags in case he's so taken with the scenery he runs off, and an active nutrition bar and travel water bowl to keep his blood sugar and hydration up on the trails. Naturally, dogs are very welcome on the shuttles.
